47 Lydia Street, Junee

Built in a desirable elevated position this spacious three-bedroom home has been designed to take full advantage of the floor space over two levels.

The top floor consists of an L shaped living area with floating timber floor boards which flows through to the dining room. This takes you to the kitchen which has a contemporary oven, with a new rangehood and cooktop to be installed.

The bathroom is timeless in style and is situated between two bedrooms with robes. Gas ducted heating and evaporative cooling ensure year round comfort

Downstairs is the third bedroom with personal access and ensuite - perfect for a teenage retreat or extra accommodation for family and friends. The laundry is also located downstairs...
