14-18 Turland Street, Illabo

This beautiful 2000m2 block positioned in the very central Illabo position, only walking distance to the local amenities won't last, so enquire today!

Recently surveyed with water connected and partial fencing, enjoy two lots side by side with an old building positioned across the boundary line... So much scope and opportunity. The land is currently going through the final stages at the lands department to finalise the current boundary lines identified in the marketing.

If you desire a community lifestyle with an attractive building block, then this could have your name on it.

Services available to the site and water connected....
